

Beginning winter semester 2023/24

Master Social Sciences (M.A.) in English language

Compulsory modules

Theoretical Approaches	9 CP
Politics and Organisations	9 CP
Knowledge, Learning and Organisations	9 CP
Society and Organisations	9 CP
Quantitative Research Methods	6 CP
Qualitative Research Methods	6 CP

Elective modules

(from political science, sociology, economics, business administration, health sciences, advanced methods courses)	18 CP
1 project and 1 internship	24 CP
Master's thesis	30 CP
Total (two-year-programme)	120 CP

The programme is set up as an encompassing curriculum of social sciences with organisations as a common reference point in all modules. Organisations are the central ordering element of current societies which makes them key to developing a comprehensive understanding of modern societies.

The Master of Social Sciences introduces students to an integrative approach to the analysis of social phenomena and gives them the tools required to participate actively in and impact the evolution of our modern society.

Admission

- Degree with 60 CP in social sciences, sociology or political science or equivalent qualification
- 9 CP in descriptive and inductive statistics
- English skills at level B2 or higher

Application deadline

15 July

